

Come and Enjoy

A Night in Edinburgh

Friday 8 September 2006

At Wellington's premier waterfront venue, The Boatshed.

Brought to you by the NZ-UK Link Foundation, in conjunction with the City of Wellington Pipe Band.

The full Scottish experience is on offer including pipers, plenty of kilts, piping in the haggis, 'ode to Burns', band and dancing.

British High Commissioner His Excellency George Fergusson will welcome the 200 expected guests into the evening's smart/kilt dress festivities which will include dinner and fundraiser auction for the NZ-UK Link Foundation and City of Wellington Pipe Band.

The NZ-UK Link Foundation exists to enhance the links between NZ and the UK through educational, vocational and cultural exchanges and fellowships. Highly-valued support has already been offered for this fund-raising event by Hunter's Wines, Trinity Hill Wines and Grove Mill, Booker-Spalding Ltd, Pivotal Services, Famous Grouse Whisky and Reynard Health Supplies. Auction prizes have already been offered by National Bank Private Banking, Zest Gourmet Food Tours and Zibibo Restaurant.
